St. James University Open Night

School will be holding an Open night for parents/carers to come into school and have a look at what their children have been doing and how they have earned their school badges at the St. James' University after school clubs.

The event will be held on Wednesday 8th February 3.15pm-4.00pm

Everybody is welcome to attend to support their child/children with their learning.

Tub Chairs

School are replacing some of its older chairs, School would like to ask if any parents/carers are in need or could make use of 5 black tub chairs.

If you could please contact the school office if you are interested.

Thank you

Highland Games

On Tuesday 24th January, 8 children including myself went to Lansbury Bridge school to take part in the Highland Games, We took part in 8 activities,

We came in first place!

It was lots of fun, my favourite game was were you had to throw a bag of sand up into the air to see who got the highest.

Thank you

School Bank

A reminder that our school bank is still open for all of our children that wish to deposit money as a way of helping them save for a rainy day.

The bank will be open every Wednesday for our whole school at morning break for any children wishing to deposit money.

Dinner Money

School would like to remind parents that dinner money needs to be sent into school in a named envelope and paid on a weekly basis.

Any debts that may occur may be passed over to the St. Helens council debt Collection team.
