

W/E: 6.10.17

As part of our English learning about postcards we have read two new stories, Meerkat Mail and Dear Dinosaur. We have been looking at the features of postcards and choosing words and phrases that we might like to include in our own writing. In Science, we have been looking at the parts of plants. We have labelled diagrams of plants and trees and dissected flowers to investigate their parts.

