

St James' CE Primary School

Year 1 Blog

Week Ending 6th March 2020

Year 1 had an excellent few weeks back in school.

We have had an exciting visit from a very special bear, Bertie, on his way home from his holiday in France. Bertie is going to help us learn all about France and we are very excited to learn from him.

In art, we have started our new topic, based on the work of fashion designer Stella McCartney. We will be using inspiration from Stella's designs and nature all around us to design and create our own spring themed t-shirts. We can't wait to channel our inner fashion designers.

At the end of the week, we had great fun celebrating World Book Day. Everyone looked wonderful in their costumes and we even had a very special visitor...
